Want to enhance your resume?

Want your technology skills verified by a certification exam?

WHAT IS ELEVATEAMERICA

Now through February 15, A-B Tech students can take FREE Microsoft Certification exams in MS Office products (Word, Excel, Access, PowerPoint, Outlook) using Office 2003 or Office 2007 (while supplies last – there are a limited number of vouchers). Usually these exams cost from $69-$99 each. Non-A-B Tech students can receive a free voucher but would pay a proctoring fee (still less than the usual exam cost). You can also get a voucher code and take the exam at any Certiport site – however, Certiport sites are allowed to charge a proctoring fee.

These exams are made possible through an Elevate America-NC initiative program. As a result, demographics information will need to be collected for tracking purposes. For more information on Elevate America go to <http://www.microsoft.com/ElevateAmerica>.

HOW TO PREPARE

For “free self-paced training” courses go to:
